HANGING HEATON CRICKET CLUB

BOOKING CONDITIONS

Acceptance of your booking will be considered by the General Committee and the result will be conveyed to the signatory via the Club Secretary.

As a Members Club, we cannot give you exclusive use of the room during the event.

If a cricket match is being played, no music can start until the match is concluded.

With regard to the room, we have no objection to you placing banners, balloons, posters, etc for your event but stress that they must be removed immediately after the event has concluded and cannot be left until the following day.

Any children attending must be supervised and cannot enter any area other than the main function room. At no time can under 16s be allowed at the bar.

Any children not being supervised will be requested to leave.

Any and all damages must be paid for.

A £50.00 returnable deposit will be required with your application which will be returned on application after the event.

Any queries regarding our facilities and rules should be directed to the Club Secretary.
